PROGRESS NOTES

Progress notes should provide a summary of the condition of the patient on admission and chrono logical record of the patient's progress. They should record consultations, complications, condition of surgical wound, development of infection, removal of suctures and drains, use of casts or splints and any other pertinent date. Notes should conclude with a final summary of the case with conditio of discharge.

- COMMENTS -