

Seaside Walk to Emmaus - Request for Reservation

Husbands and wives are encouraged to attend Emmaus during the same set of weekends. If one is not interested, your sponsor should follow up with you in six to nine months. If only one spouse is interested at that time, an explanation should be submitted in writing by the sponsor, along with the Reservation Form, explaining that this has occurred. If your pastor has attended Emmaus, they should be asked to provide a letter as well.

Husbands and wives are encouraged to attend Emmaus during the same set of weekends. If a sponsor talks with both the husband and wife and one is not interested; the sponsor should wait six to nine months (between walks) and talk with the couple again. If, at that time, one is still not interested, the application for one person should be submitted with an explanation attached that the above process has occurred. If the Pilgrim's pastor has attended Emmaus, they should be asked to provide a letter as well.
